

Coming Soon Products:

Top Description:

The Coming Soon Product extension helps store owners to show product which launch soon in store front. You can also show date when you launch product with timer with Text which defined from backend. Store owner can enable from product edit page. Also add date for when product launch. After date add product automatically launch as per date.

Technical:

Store owner can enable/disable extension from backend. Store owner can assign coming soon text from backend. Also add date in product details page for timer.

Key Feature:

- Enable/Disable extension from a backend
- Once you set the 'Product Available At', the product is automatically launched on the set date
- Add to cart button not show until countdown not finish.
- You can manually edit the product and make it live instantly

Bottom Feature:

Enable/disable Extension: option to disable/enable this extension. if it is disabled then it will not perform in frontend.

Coming soon Text: You can define coming soon text in backend.

Lunching Date: product attributes 'Product Available At' as the date when product is going to be launched.